FIREMEN'S DANCE WAS A SUCCESS

The dance held last evening in the Olympic hall by the Volunteer Firemen proved to be one of the most successful affairs ever held by the boys. The hall was crowded although there was plenty of room for the comfort of the dancers. The hall was beautifully decorated in colors of the firemen and refreshments were served at a late hour. Dancing continued until the wee sma' hours of the morning and excellent music was furnished by a local orchestra.

MONESSEN HIGH SCHOOL TO PUT ON A FINE PLAY

The Monessen High School is arranging to produce "The Wreck of the Hesperus," a most pleasing and fitting play especially adapted to high school work.

The play is to be given for the benefit of the school library, which badly needs replenishing, and much interest is being aroused over the production already. The entertainment will be given in the opera house, and there will be two parts. The first part will be more of a literary and musical program under the direction of Prof. Robert W. Davies, as will be also part second, which will embrace "The Wreck of the Hesperus" proper. This play was recently put on in Charleroi with great success, and we can assure Monessen music lovers that they will be given a treat by our high school students on April 18th. All are working hard from Prof. Gress down to the last member of the cast, and every citizen should do all possble to help them along.

JOHN A. BRASHEAR, ONE OF THE NOTED ASTRONOMERS FOR A TAFT DELEGATE

Dr. John A. Brashear, the great astronomer of the Allegheny Observatory, has announced as a Taft delegate to the National convention from the Tweny-ninth congressional district. But coming in the field late, as he has, it will be necessary to use stickers on the ballots. However, on account of the popularity of the man, it is thought that he will have not the least trouble in landing.

John A. Brashear is an old Monongahela valley man, having been born and reared about one mile out the old National Pike from Brownsville, on the old Brashear farm. Starting at Brownsville as a boy, he drifted to South Side, Pittsburgh, becoming a mill hand, and from that humble position he rose rapidly until today he is recognized as one of the most eminent scientists and astronomers of the world. There is no more popular citizen in the North Side than Dr. Brashear, and it looks good to see such men as he take up the standard in the contest for Wm. H. Taft, for re-nomination to the Presidential seat.

ATTORNEY McILVANE GOES BACK TO LAW

Chas. G. McIlvane of Monongahela, well known by many Monessen business men as well as all along this valley, has resigned as counsel for the Monongahea River Consoldated Coal & Coke Co., and will resume the regular practice of law. Attorney McIlvane has been legal adviser for a number of years for a number of the valley's largest coal mining and coking concerns, and was for some considerable time a heavy stockholder and an officer in the above named concern, and he resigns now, since the river company's holdings have been purchased by the Pittsburgh Coal Co. It is said his office will be in Monongahela.

FOUND HOME BURNED ON SUNDAY MORNING

Miss Alanda Forsyth left Monongahela for Roscoe Sunday morning to spend Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Forsyth, and on arriving there found that early in the morning their home had been totally destroyed by fire at 6:30. The bake shop of a Mr. Fitch, close to the Forsyth home, caught fire, setting fire to the residence occupied by Forsyths. Under the same circumstances the Forsyth home was burned to the ground a number of years ago. The Forsyth family are staying with a son who lives at Roscoe.

Dear Friend Schlup:

I cleaned up a manufacturer of his entire stock of Dresses, Suits and Coats for Hanger & Thompson, of Walla Walla, Wash. The market value represents about $7,500.00. I paid them $4,650.00 for all. I have selected 32 suits and 21 coats and a few dresses; you certainly can make a noise with them, the values range from $18.00 to $35.00. Mark them close and I bet you will sell them all in a few days. I feel sure you will call it square for the one you roasted me about in the fall for not sending any. "WHO IS WHO" COMING SOON

There's a big hit coming—it's Who Is Who?

A feature that besides being interesting offers you the opportunity of picking up a cash reward.

All you have to do is to find "Who is Who," and with the assistance we will give you from day to day this should be a very easy matter.

There will be a number of people on the inside of "Who is Who" and these people will not be entitled to compete but have instructions to enable you to win if you should be lucky enough to ask the right ones.

When the Daily Independent uses a feature you know it is right, so open up your mind to keep your eyes open for "Who is Who" and watch this paper for further advice.

GEO. SHRADER & SON TO BUILD KARLOWSKY'S HOUSE

George Shrader & Son has been awarded a contract to build a fine new buff brick residence for August Karlowsky on Linden avenue, between First and Second streets. Work on the excavating has already begun and it is thought the foundation work will be completed in two weeks. The building is to be completed in ninety days, and will be one of Monessen's finest homes.

The reputation of the Shraders for good, substantial work is well established, they being rated among the best and most careful contractors in the valley, and already many buildings are standing in Monessen as marks to their decided cerdit as mechanics of the highest order.

MINERS WILL GET TO WORK NEXT WEEK

Saturday will be pay day at most all the mines in this locality and a big bunch of money will be put in circulation along the valley. It is thought the miners will be ready to resume operations on April 22d, and many are willing to go to work now, if permission could be obtained from the operators.

The miners at Roscoe petitioned the district convention at Pittsburgh Saturday to rescind the suspension order, but their request was refused, as the convention does not wish a resumpion at any of the mines in the district until after the referendum vote is taken, which is expected to be about Saturday or Monday.

Every indication is favorable to a settlement and it is thought that when the convention meets it will decide to open the mines at an early day, and it is hoped that all miners will be back at work by the middle of next week.

RATTLING GOOD BILL ON AT THE STAR THEATRE

The Star theatre last night opened the week with strong attractions and had two good houses. A good photo play opened, followed by Zobino in a very clever balancing act, to which the audiences responded liberally. Fern and Mack are commedians of more than ordinary ability in an up-to-date singing, talking, dancing, and laugh-making turn. They were favorites from the start. "The Ten Cotton Pickers," the feature, presented a regular old-time Southern darkey, or plantation act in ye olden days, embracing good acting, proper costuming singing and dancing, and the number pleased the people. The closing picture was one of the best ever seen in the house.

Ask everybody "Who Is Who" and try for the cash prizes.

An Honorable Profession

The Hon. Thos. R. Marshall, now Governor of Indiana deplores decadence in the professions of law, medicine and theology, more particularly law, and a few days ago remarked, when addressing a Y. M. C. A. mass meeting: "Do you know, my friends, why I forsook the practice of law to enter politics?" "Well," he continued, "It was to preserve my self respect. I wanted to get into a profession where my conscience could be given breathing room; where I wouldn't have to wink one eye at the truth." No doubt Judge Marshall is right, in a measure, as we very frequently hear lawyers dubbed "liars." in every day parlance, thus it is left to appear that they not only have to "wink the other eye," but they very frequently are compelled to "stretch the blanket" almost to the tearing point in order to "make ends meet," as it were; or in other words, make out a strong case for the client, when in his own heart and soul he knows that the points he is trying, in all apparent earnestness, to impress indelibly upon the minds of judge and jury, are anything and everything but truths. While the practice of law is looked upon as most dignified and elevated, there are some very questionable tactics resorted to by some, and we might say many attorneys who are satisfied to "wink the other eye," accept a case, put up a fight, and "take the money, "even though he knows there is no ground or merit in his client's case. However, it is gratifying to know that there are a few who, rather than make their money by "winking the other eye," will leave the profession as did Judge Marshall.

There is however, one honorable way by which a man once launched in the profession may continue in his chosen work and make a success, as many have done. That is, accept no case that he could not argue conscientiously before the bar of justice, feeling that the points he presented to judge and jury were nought but truths. Some lawyers have accumulated money by the questionable course which disgusted Judge Marshall, but some of the world's greatest legal lights. The ones whose opinions are most valued, have gained their prominence by the honest course.

Refusing to countenance a case where they could not present the truthful side and win a victory clean, clear and honorable—on it's merits. Such men have never failed to win out in financial way, and retain the respect of fellow attorneys at the bar, his clientel and the world at large. He can also lie down at night and sleep with a clear conscience, knowing that he won his case and his pay without "winking the other eye."

A Child Labor Law

After various amendments in both houses of Congress the Child Labor law has passed. There is to be a bureau established with a chief at a salary of $5,000, who is to collect statistics by means of enumerators, but who are not permitted to enter a home if the householder objects. This latter is a concession to State rights, although actually demanded by the cotton mill men of the South.

The whole purpose of the bill is to start a national movement against the employment of child labor anywhere in the country, save under the most exceptional circumstances and under wise provisions. The opposition came almost wholly from representatives of Southern states, where child labor is largely employed in the cotton mills. It may be that existing conditions are better there than some years ago. that they may have been exaggerated even under the worst of conditons, but no sane person can think it right that children of six to eight years of age should be employed anywhere, unless in the last social extremity.

It may be said that the passage of the bill is a great moral and social victory and that it is bound to lead to something better.

STEEL WAGES HERE HIGHEST

Under the protective tariff, which has built up American Industries and developed American trade, wages paid steel workers in the United States are the highest in the world.

For instance, the labor cost in the United States per ton of tinplate is $22.95; in Wales only $12.75.

Steel workers in this country receive wages greatly in excess of those paid to steel workers in other countries for the same class of work. European workmen do not enjoy the improved and modern conditions enjoyed by those of the United States, such as safety appliances and devices for cooling the mills in summer.

Wages of Tin Workers

The question of wages paid to tinplate workers in this country and in Wales, which country is the home of the tinplate industry, illustrates advantages in this respect that the worker in this country enjoys. The following figures were submitted by President James A. Farrell of the Steel Corporation while testifying before the Stanley Steel Investigating Committee recently:

	U. S. Wages Paid Per Ton	Wales Wages Paid Per Ton
Roller	$9.76	$4.55
Opener	.42½	.30
Annealer	.87	.66
Pickler	.48	.27½
Cold Roller	.52	.20
Washer	1.55	1.24
White Pickler	.37½	.27
Common Labor	3.52	1.66

It Is Up to Workmen

It is up to the men in the hundreds of mills and shops in the great Pittsburgh District today whether they want four more years of Taft and Protective Tariff, Peace and Plenty, or four years of Somebody Else and Free Trade, Distress and Disaster.

No matter how much dust is raised over other issues, it is the Tariff which is the real issue of the Presidential Campaign this year.

Don't let the dust of Recall of Judges or any other experimental thing blind your eyes.

You know Protective Tariff. It is an old and faithful Friend.

Men of the mills and shops, join in the state-wide movement for the re-election of President Taft and the indorsement of the Republican Party's Policy of Protective Tariff.

PECULIARITIES OF PRICEDALE SKIRMISH

The Saturday desturbance reported in the Independent from Pricedale turned out to not be as serious as was at first supposed. There was no shooting, it is said, and the Pricedale constable who was said to have been assaulted and shot escaped unhurt.

The trouble seems to have been between two brothers named Erdelyi and a foregner named George Donkoyi. Andy Erdelyi it appears lives at Arnold City and he went to another part of town to a boarding house to see his brother John, and there they in some way met Donkoyi. Some sort of an argument started and it is said the brothers did give the foreigner a pretty good beating, as his appearance indicated. Andy Erdelyi was taken to Belle Vernon, given a hearing and let off with a fine and the other brother got his little piece of justice at Arnold City, which is in Westmoreland county. The point where the fight occurred was, strange to say, about on the line between Westmoreland and Fayette county, and in the thickest of the melee, when the arrests were made, one man was in one county and one in the other.

Catty.

"Mrs. Edgealong spoke very admiringly of you," said the woman of conciliatory disposition. "Yes," replied Mrs Flimgilt. "She is always doing that. It's a way she has of conveying an impression that she is one of my intimate friends."

News Notes of Society

Miss Janice Greer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Greer of Reed avenue entertained the Saturday afternoon sewing club from two thirty until five Saturday in honor of her twelfth birthday and the afternoon was most enjoyably spent by the young folks. Aside from the regular club members there were a number of invited guests, and after the season of practical work, there was a pleasureable social hour in which games, music and the like were enjoyed, followed by a delectable little luncheon served at the hands of the amiable hostess, assisted by Mrs. Greer, thus rounding out an afternoon of enjoyment which will long be cherished in the memory of little Miss Greer as well as her happy guests. Numerous little remembrances were taken by the visitors and these, as well as the being highly appreciated will no donbt be kept as reminders of the pleasant event long after the hostess has grown to womanhood. The decorations were characteristic of Eastertime and all-in-all it was a afternoon very much enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith of Essen last night entertained in honor of their son Earl, who is home from W. & J. college on his Easter vacation. Quite a large number of young folks were invited in and a most enjoyable evening was passed in ways peculiar and appropriate to the boys and girls—plays, games, music and a dandy fine lunch made up the evening's program and it was quite late when the guests bade their host goodbye. Mr. Smith will return to Washington tomorrow to take up his school work.

Weather Prognostications

Temperature will be near the seasonal average throughout the country this week with rains generally light and local, according to the weekly bulletin issued last night. "A change to considerably cooler weather," the bulletin says, "will overspread the eastern districts today, but it will be followed by rising temperatures Wednesday and several days thereafter.

"Warmer weather also is probable in the Middle West and the South. The next disturbance of importance to cross the country will appear in the far West about Thursday or Friday and Eastern States near the close of the week; it will be attended by local rains and be followed by cooler weather, which will overspread the Northwestern States Thursday or Friday."

SAGE TEA WILL DARKEN THE HAIR

Restore Faded and Gray Hair to Natural Color--Dandruff Quickly Removed.

There is nothing new about the idea of using Sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our grandmothers kept their hair dark, glossy and abundant by the use of a simple "Sage Tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of Sage leaves, and applied it to their hair with wonderfully beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time tiresome method of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves; and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing Sage in the proper strength, with the addition of Sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

This preparation gives youthful color and beauty to the hair, and is one of the best remedies you can use for dandruff, dry, feverish, itching scalp, and falling hair. Get a fifty cent bottle from your druggist today, and you will be surprised at the quick results. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.

DOORS OF TAFT CLUB OPENED

Commodious Headquarters In Fifth Avenue, Pittsburg

WELCOME EXTENDED TO ALL

Campaign For Renomination of President Is Now Fully Under Way. "Taft and Tariff" Is Slogan of Club, Which Proposes to Carry the President's Banner Into Every Section of Western Pennsylvania.

By Arthur F. Goshen,
Special Correspondent.

Pittsburg, April 2.—With the opening of the comfortable and convenient headquarters of the Taft Club of Pittsburg on Fifth avenue just above Smithfield street last Saturday the presidential campaign in this section of western Pennsylvania has been fully launched. Though the club's rooms were thrown open with little formality the incident did not fail to attract much attention and enthusiasm in behalf of the renomination and re-election of President Taft. The place was crowded from early morning until late at night indicating that as the campaign progresses this will prove an important meeting place for those who are bending their energies for Taft

The club headquarters are at 413 Fifth avenue on the ground floor. They are handsomely fitted up and equipped with everything to promote the success of the undertaking the leaders of the Taft movement in this section have begun. The national colors are prominent in the decorations and in the window is displayed a splendid portrait of the president. There is also displayed to attract the attention of the passerby on Fifth avenue the resolution adopted at the Fort Pitt hotel meeting where the Taft club was organized on March 13.

At night a handsome electric sign in front of the Taft club blazens forth as a guide to let the voters know where they can learn the latest news and help in the cause of Taft. The club rooms are under the personal charge of Harry K. Moseley and a corps of assistants competent and ever ready to extend the hand of welcome to the friends of the president from every walk in life.

A perfect stream of visitors filed through the headquarters all day Saturday. There was no set program for the opening B F. Jones, Jr. president of the club and head of the big manufacturingg interests of the Jones & Laughlin Steel company, and all of the 3000 vice presidents who could arrange to be there at some hour or other were on hand to indicate the enthusiasm and earnestness of the task undertaken Mr. Jones declared his perfect satisfaction with the start made and said he felt much was to be accomplished through providing a meeting place for the Taft workers in this section of the state

The crowds were cosmopolitan in character representing as they did men of all occupations from factory hand to manufacturer and merchant They came not alone from the city itself but from many counties in this end of the state. The visitors from out of town brought word of growing strength of the Taft movement in every locality. Every caller at the Taft club rooms was presented with a handsome Taft badge which consists of a circular button bearing a portrait of the familiar and jovial features of the president Suspended therefrom is a ribbon of red, white and blue.

Members who came brought friends and hundreds of new members were enrolled on the club's roster. The club will provide a place for the recruiting of members in the Taft movement every day right up to the day of the primaries on April 13.

Every member is given to understand that he and his friends are to make it a point to stop at the headquarters every time they pass that way even for a few minutes. In this way enthusiasm in behalf of the renomination of Taft will not be allowed to lag for an instant.

What is being impressed on the minds of everyone who calls at the club rooms is the true purpose and aim of the organization, its entire freedom from participation in factional strife They are told that the promoters of the movement in this locality launched it solely in the interest of the renomination and re-election of President Taft. It is an organization composed of voters from every occupation, who pledge themselves to work for Taft's renomination in the Republican national convention without regard to party affiliations or factional alignments. The issue is not to be clouded by participation in local political contests "Taft and Tariff" is the slogan with which the Taft club flies its banner.

Several thousand Taft club men throughout the western end of the state have signed the resolution endorsing Taft's candidacy and the policies of the Republican party for which he stands. Scores of others, those in charge of club headquarters say, are adding their names hourly and indications point to an enrollment of thousands of the leading men in every walk in life within a few days. Much encouragement was given at the opening Saturday by the enthusiastic reports brought in from outlying sections

THE TRUE TEST

Tried in Monessen, It Has Stood the Test

The hardest test is the test of time, and Doan's Kidney Pills have stood it well in Monessen. Kidney sufferers can hardly ask for stronger proof than the following:

Mrs. Feightner, 133 Oneida street, Monessen, Pa., says: "I suffered from severe pains in my back and left side and it seemed as if there were no relief for me. I had dizzy spells and my appetite was poor. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I obtained a box, although I had but little hope of their curing me. I am now glad that I took this remedy, however, for it improved my condition in every way." (Statement given Oct. 2, 1907.)

RE-ENDORSEMENT.

When Mrs. Feightner was interviewed on Nov. 9, 1909 she said: "I gladly re-endorse Doan's Kidney Pills. I still think highly of them and advise their use in all cases of kidney trouble."

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists many different salves have been tried for skin diseases But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recommend as highly as this for we know that D.D.D stops the itch at once We can give you a trial size bottle for 25 cents that will be enough to prove it

Of course all other druggists have D.D.D Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute

But if you come to our store we are so certain of what D.D.D will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee —If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.

OLYMPIC

Today and Wednesday at the Olympic will be shown three most excellent reels of pictures—comedy, drama and other interesting subjects. Thursday there will be five reels, the feature being "Alcohol the Poison of Humanity," showing by stages the evil effects, following from affluence to degredation and poverty, caused by the persistent use of strong drink. Don't miss this, one of the best pictures we've ever had. A big bill is coming for Friday and Saturday. Stricklin's midget animal circus, comprising ten dogs, two ponies and two monkeys, all trained to perform with almost incredible intelligence. Norine Carmen Co., three comedians and comedienne, in high class work. Derda has a juggling act of the highest order, and there is a single, a lady character part, making four strong numbers, beside the moving pictures. Many people made a mistake by thinking the seals were to remain during this week So don't again make that error. Vaudville at the Olympic is only Friday and Saturday.

OPENING OF ELECTRIC SHOW AT CHARLEROI

The big electric show by the West Penn Electric Co., at Chareroi opened last night under most favorable conditions and the attendance was beyond anticipation, there being almost 2,600 people there during the evening. Everything was in readiness for the opening at Basket ball hall, which was a blaze of light both inside and out. The crowd developed into a veritable jam, and at one time it was necessary to ask aid from the polce department to dispel the jam about the doors, and to help hold the younger element in check. This necessitated the management concluding that hereafter all children not accompanied by parents or guardians cannot be admitted. But later in the week a say will be set aside for children and special arrangements made to care for them in the proper way.

The displays were such that most favorable comment was elicited from all, particular attention being directed to the coal mining and coke plant display which was something wonderful, being pronounced the best piece of electrical mechanism ever seen in this section. Many are the other electrical desplays, which must be seen to get a proper conception of their worth or merit. See announcement elsewhere in this paper.

REV. ALLBECK'S CHURCH PROSPERING

At the Easter service at the Grace Lutheran church Monongahela, Sunday, a prominent member of that church, who with many others noting the over crowded situation at the services offered a resolution to the effect that the church council at once proceed to take steps looking toward the enlargement of the church home, on account of the inadequacy of the old building to accommodate the large number who worship there.

The resolution met with hearty favor as the church has grown wonderfully. It will be remembered the work was taken up by Rev. M. M. Allbeck from Monessen in the year 1908, and since that time the church and congregaton has flourished and grown rapidly, until today the Sunday school is hampered by lack of space and the auditorium will not accommodate the fast growing congregation. The year 1907 showed the Sunday school with an attendance of 44 and the offering was $1. Sunday there were 164 in attendance and the offering was $6.50 an advance to be proud of by that church. The church has the property to build on, and it will undoubtedly be only a short time until Paster Allbeck, who has labored so faithfully, and his congregation, will be rewarded with a larger and more modern edifice. This is very gratifying to his many Monessen friends, he having been one of the early pastors of the Monessen church.

Says Fruit is Damaged

An experienced observer of fruit trees, etc., has given the following report regarding the outlook for the coming year

The pear fruit buds are not showing up well, cherries are not good plums are destroyed and the peach buds are no good whatever.

A good report can be made for the apple. In 50 fruit buds examined not one bad one was found. This is remarkable, as the trees were covered so long with ice and the mercury was much below zero for considerable of the winter.
